5. Statement of intent:

Please explain below why this area is considered appropriate to be designated as a neighbourhood area.

The proposed Community Led Neighbourhood Plan covers the whole parish of Ferring. Surrounding areas such as the coastline ,South Downs National Park and the green corridors to the East and West of the parish are all of great strategic importance to the vision of preserving and enhancing Ferring’s unique character as a village community. The preparation of this plan has involved the community and offered residents a chance to express their views and wishes for the future development of housing, businesses , leisure opportunities and the protection and enhancement of the environment within the parish. Ferring worked with Kingston, our neighbouring parish, to obtain a “frontrunner “ grant from the government to partially fund this work.
